FIRST CIRCULAR

We are pleased to inform you that the executive council of The Kerala History Conference has decided to conduct the Sixth Annual International Conference from 16.11.2018 to 18.11.2018 under the auspices of Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University, Aksharam Campus, Vakkad, Tirur, Malappuram District.

The Kerala History Conference, formulated as a common academic forum for the methodical study and comprehensive analysis of Kerala History, has been holding its annual conferences for the past five years at various places in Kerala. The Conference draws together academicians, research scholars and students from various parts of the country as well as abroad in a common platform to share their research findings and debate on recent trends and concerns in history, historiography and historical methods on Kerala.

Renowned historians and public intellectuals will address the KHC conference in various sessions and share their thoughts regarding the thrust areas. The Annual Conference consists of plenary session, erudite lectures, invited talks, public meetings, paper presentations, open forums, exhibitions, book fairs, art performances and release of the Proceedings of the Fifth Conference held at M.S.M. College, Kayamkulam.

Research papers, either in English or in Malayalam, are invited for the sixth annual session of the Conference. The Papers, not exceeding 10 pages typed in MS Word (Times New Roman 12pt) with double spacing should be either uploaded in to the Online Registration Format or mailed to keralahistoryconference2018@temu.ac.in on or before 10th November 2018.

About University

Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University has been established by the Government of Kerala on November 2012. The primary objective of the University is the promotion of study and research of Malayalam language, literature, Kerala culture as well as science and technology. The University aims at knowledge production through Malayalam as a medium. And therefore the University offers postgraduate courses and research programmes along with other major projects. The University is located at Vakkad, Tirur, Malappuram District.

Thrust Areas

Original, unpublished research papers on any area related to the social, political, cultural, economic, intellectual, or oral history and historiography of Kerala in the streams of ancient, medieval, modern and frontier areas, are invited at the conference. We are also open to presentations from other areas which we believe will qualitatively enrich studies on Kerala history.
