

Newly admitted students to take oath against dowry today

Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University's Anti-dowry Pledge began. When Kerala discusses the issue of dowry and related deaths of hapless girls, Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University Newly admitted Students take pledge against dowry system.

15.11.2021

As many as 85 students of the University from different schools including postgraduates and Ph.D. scholars participated. “We bent it in a way that dowry is the biggest crime in one’s life and it did wonders,” said Dr. Sundara Raj T, NSS Coordination. All the students wore face masks and hand sanitizers were used frequently a precautionary measure against the spread of COVID-19.

Dr. Sundara Raj T,
NSS Coordinator,
Thuchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University,
Tirur, Malappuram